Fraud is an intentional dishonest act or omission done with the purpose of deceiving.

Note: There is no statutory or agreed common law definition of Fraud. Offences addressed under Part 5 and Part 6 of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935 are considered to constitute Fraud offences. An ordinary or lay meaning of Fraud is 'to obtain dishonestly that which the person is not entitled to'. Fraud is a broad label applicable to conduct / practices that involve knowingly dishonest or deceitful behaviour meant to obtain an unjust benefit. Dishonesty is the key element in fraudulent behaviour, as provided for under section 131 of the Criminal Law Consolidation Act 1935.

ICAC Act is the Independent Commissioner Against Corruption Act 2012.

Maladministration in public administration is defined in section 5(3) of the ICAC Act and

- means:
 - i. contravention of a code of conduct by a public officer while acting in his or her capacity as a public officer that constitutes a ground for disciplinary action against the officer; or
 - ii. other misconduct of a public officer while acting in his or her capacity as a public officer.

- receive and assess complaints about public administration from members of the public;
- receive and assess reports about corruption, misconduct and maladministration in public administration from inquiry agencies (including the Ombudsman), public authorities (including the Council) and public officers;
- refer complaints and reports to inquiry agencies, public authorities and public officers in circumstances approved by the Commissioner or make recommendations as to whether and by whom complaints and reports should be investigated;
- give directions or guidance to public authorities in circumstances approved by the Commissioner;
- perform other functions assigned to the Office by the Commissioner.

PID Act means the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2018.

Public administration defined at section 4 of the ICAC Act and, without limiting the acts that may comprise public administration, an administrative act within the meaning of the Ombudsman Act 1972 will be taken to be carried out in the course of public administration. For the purposes of this Policy, references to Corruption, Misconduct and maladministration are taken to mean references to such conduct in public administration.

Public Officer has the meaning given by section 4 and Schedule 1 of the ICAC Act, and includes:

- a council member; and

FRAUD, CORRUPTION, MISCONDUCT AND MALADMINISTRATION POLICY

- an employee or officer of the Council;

Responsible Officer is a person who has completed any training courses approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of the Public Interest Disclosure Regulations 2019 and has been designated by the Council as responsible officer under section 12 of the PID Act.

For the purposes of the ICAC Act, misconduct or maladministration in public administration will be taken to be serious or systemic if the misconduct or maladministration —

- is of such a significant nature that it would undermine public confidence in the relevant public authority, or in public administration generally; and
- has significant implications for the relevant public authority or for public administration generally (rather than just for the individual public officer concerned).

Note: further information about serious or systemic misconduct or maladministration is available at the ICAC website: <https://icac.sa.gov.au/glossary>

3. PREVENTION

The Council recognises that the occurrence of Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration will be more likely to prevail in an administrative environment where opportunities exist for waste and abuse.

The Council also recognises that the most effective way to prevent the occurrence of Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration is to instil and continually reinforce a culture across the Council of acting lawfully, ethically and in a socially responsible manner, and to support this culture with the implementation of appropriate internal control mechanisms.

The Council expects employees and council members will assist in facilitating a sound ethical culture and preventing Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration by:

- understanding the responsibilities of their positions;
- familiarising themselves with Council policies and procedures and adhering to them;
- understanding what behaviour constitutes Fraudulent or Corrupt conduct, Misconduct and/or Maladministration;
- maintaining an awareness of the strategies that have been implemented by Council to minimise Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration;

FRAUD, CORRUPTION, MISCONDUCT AND MALADMINISTRATION POLICY

- being continuously vigilant to the potential for Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration to occur in the Council environment; and
- reporting suspected or actual occurrences of Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration in accordance with Part 6 and 7 of this Policy.

4. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The table in Appendix 1 to this Policy outlines the roles and responsibilities of key individuals and groups with respect to Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration prevention within Council.

5. EDUCATION FOR AWARENESS

The Council recognises that the success and credibility of this Policy will largely depend upon how effectively it is communicated throughout the organisation and beyond.

The Council will, therefore, from time to time take proactive steps towards ensuring that the wider community is aware of the Council's zero-tolerance stance towards Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration, including by:

- promoting the Council's initiatives and policies regarding the control and prevention of Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration on the Council website and at Council offices;
- referring to the Council's Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration initiatives in the Council's Annual Report; and
- facilitating public access to all of the documents that constitute the Council's Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration framework, including those documents identified in the introduction of this Policy.

6. REPORTING CORRUPTION, OR SYSTEMIC OR SERIOUS MISCONDUCT AND MALADMINISTRATION

Any Public Officer who has or acquires knowledge of actual or suspected Corruption, or Systematic or Serious Misconduct or Maladministration in the Council or in other public administration must report this information to the OPI as soon as practicable.

All reasonable suspicions of Corruption or Systematic or Serious Misconduct or Maladministration must be reported to the OPI in accordance with the Commissioner's reporting requirements as identified in the Commissioner's Directions and Guidelines.

A report to the OPI must be made using the online report form available at: <https://icac.sa.gov.au/opi>

Note: Particulars of what a report should include are available in the ICAC Directions and Guidelines.

When reporting actual or suspected Corruption, or Systematic or Serious Misconduct or Maladministration, in the Council or in other public administration, to the OPI under the ICAC Act, any requirements of other documents that form part of the Council's Fraud, Corruption, Misconduct and Maladministration framework (including those documents identified at clause 1 of this Policy) should also, to the extent possible, be adhered to.

Nothing in this section is intended to prevent a Public Officer from reporting suspected Corruption or Systematic or Serious Misconduct or Maladministration in the Council or in other public administration to a Relevant Authority, like a Council's Responsible Officer, for the purposes of the PID Act. Such a disclosure may be protected under the PID Act and, if made to the Council's Responsible Officer, will be managed in accordance with the Council's Public Interest Disclosure Policy and Procedure. Public Officers are encouraged to have regard to the Council's Public Interest Disclosure Procedure when determining where to direct a disclosure.

Further information about reporting requirements is available at the ICAC website: <https://icac.sa.gov.au/>

7. REPORTING FRAUD, MISCONDUCT OR MALADMINISTRATION

Where an employee, council member, contractor or volunteer has or acquires knowledge of actual or suspected Fraud or other similar conduct that does not constitute Corruption or Systematic or Serious Misconduct or Maladministration (and is therefore not required to be reported to OPI), that knowledge should be reported to the Council's Responsible Officer. Such a disclosure may be protected under the PID Act and will be managed in accordance with the Council's Public Interest Disclosure Policy and Public Interest Disclosure Procedure.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLICATION PROHIBITIONS

A person who receives information knowing that the information is connected with a matter that forms or is the subject of a complaint, report, assessment, investigation, referral or evaluation under the ICAC Act must not disclose that information, other than in the limited circumstances set out in section 54(3) of the ICAC Act.

A person must not, other than as authorised by the Commissioner or a court, publish or cause to be published any of the following:

- information tending to suggest that a particular person is, has been, may be, or may have been, the subject of a complaint, report, assessment, investigation or referral under the ICAC Act;
- information that might enable a person who has made a complaint or report under the ICAC Act to be identified or located;
- the fact that a person has made or may be about to make a complaint or report under the ICAC Act;
- information that might enable a person who has given or may be about to give information or other evidence under the ICAC Act to be identified or located;
- the fact that a person has given or may be about to give information or other evidence under this Act; or
- any other information or evidence which the Commissioner has prohibited from publication.

FRAUD, CORRUPTION, MISCONDUCT AND MALADMINISTRATION POLICY

A failure to comply with the requirements in this part can constitute an offence. A Council employee who fails to comply with these requirements may also face disciplinary action which may include dismissal from employment.

In addition to the requirements in this part, council members and employees should also be mindful of the confidentiality provisions in the Council's Public Interest Disclosure Policy.

9. ACTION BY THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Unless otherwise directed by OPI or SAPOL, the CEO will investigate how the alleged Corruption, Fraud, Misconduct or Maladministration occurred to determine the cause for the breakdown in controls and identify if any recommendations as to changes in policies, procedures or internal controls should be made to the Council. The investigation should:

- occur as soon as practicable after the alleged incident; and
- not impose on or detract from any investigation being undertaken by the OPI or SAPOL;
- have regard to any recommendations in any report received from the Commissioner or SAPOL on the incident.

The CEO will, in conducting the investigation and deciding whether and how to report on the investigation to Council, have regard to the provisions of the Public Interest Disclosure Policy, and any confidentiality requirements under the PID Act and/or ICAC Act.

Action taken by the CEO following an investigation into alleged Corruption, Fraud, Misconduct or Maladministration may include disciplinary action against any employee involved in the incident
