CURTIS GROWS THE BIGGEST PUMPKIN

Competition was fierce in the biggest pumpkin competition, but Curtis Smith took out the prize, narrowly defeating second place winner Robin Burdett by one kilogram.

Curtis' pumpkin weighed in at 32 kg, making it the heaviest of the dozen or so entries on the day.

Curtis also offered some of his other home-grown pumpkins for sale at the market day, but these were a bit smaller than his prize-winning gourd! Locals will have seen his pumpkins for sale on Kulkawarra rd.

KAROONDA AND DISTRICT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Members have been very busy giving some of the old corrugated iron buildings a facelift. The Mindarie pump shed and Yurgo siding good's shed have been repainted.

The 'Takeout' Shed and adjacent platform are originals from the Yurgo Railway Station situated on the Peebinga line 20 kilometres from Karoonda. It opened on 28 December 1914 and closed on 1 November 1979. The shed and platform were relocated in to Pioneer Park in 1985. A maintenance fettle gang was based in Yurgo and three cottages and a barrack.

The farmers left their cream and eggs in the shed, and filled out a consignment form which was placed in a special box. The goods were collected by the train and taken to Adelaide. Because it was a single track the trains would come up one day and back the next. Until the 1940's most farmers kept cows and ran fowls. Both were valuable sidelines bringing in extra money for families. The milk was separated and the cream put in cans for sale to butter manufacturers. Cream cans and egg crates were a major part of the loading picked up by the mixed trains and the rail cars. In the 1950's during the wool boom some farmers gave up the labour-intensive sidelines and this source of freight dropped.

The repairs to and painting of Hood's house is the next project to be tackled by a painter. The park and other attractions in the town have been attracting some interest from travel groups and Michael Mills from Illuminart and Jarrod Pickford, the podcast producer of Storytowns. We are attempting to improve the appearance of the park to make it more appealing to community groups by green-ing up the area between the carriages and machinery shed.

Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of the month in the shed at Pioneer Park. Watch the Facebook page and notice-boards for upcoming working bees.

FRIENDLY REMINDER

With the current Covid situation ramping up in SA, we would like to give everyone a friendly reminder to check-in, sanitise, socially distance and to wear a mask at all times whilst in the shop.

SOIL TESTING

Over the past five decades, the practice and use of soil testing has become widely accepted in agribusiness both by farmers and industry. The potential for increased yields and profits has been the obvious motivator for the keen interest in soil testing.

Soil test reports will generally provide you with appropriate fertilizer application recommendations for nitrogen, phosphorous, potassium and limestone. Soil testing also allows for determining the micronutrient requirements of your crop.

Soil testing provides a farm management tool with a potential benefit to the farmer of increased yields, reduced operating costs and superior environmental risk management. Additional benefits include; improved crop maturity and quality, higher tolerance to disease and pest damage, and increased growth.

To talk about getting your soil tested, call Stephen Byrne on: (08) 8576 3132 today!

Marama hall receives funding

Members of the Marama community were delighted to receive funding via the Foundation for Rural & Regional Renewal, to revamp the Marama hall.

The funding, received in March, through the FRRR and Australian Governments Future Drought Fund, will be used to restore the hall to its former state, so that it is available for use by members of the community of Marama and surrounds. A number of local groups and organisations lent their support to the Marama Community group to receive the funding, and work has already commenced at the hall. One of the first projects undertaken with the funding was the underpinning of the hall, and future projects will include masonry and landscaping.

Fact sheet for pig owners

Japanese encephalitis

Japanese encephalitis (JE) is a disease that can infect pigs, waterbirds and horses. JE is exotic to Australia but has recently been detected in pigs in southeast Australia, including South Australia.

About the virus

JEV is an arbovirus which means it is transmitted via bites from infected mosquitoes. La Niña weather conditions have made the weather wetter and warmer than normal, increasing mosquito activity.

Mosquito bites spread the virus

Mosquitoes become infected with the virus after feeding off an infected animal. Once infected, mosquitoes can spread the virus over long distances.

People can also become infected through mosquito bites. The virus does not spread from animals to animals, and it does not spread from animals to humans.

There is no evidence of human-to-human transmission of the virus.

Symptoms to look for in pigs

Common symptoms in pigs include:

- mummified, stillborn, abnormal, or weak piglets
- neurological signs in piglets including paddling, tremors or convulsions
- depression, wasting or hindlimb paralysis may be seen in sucklings and weaners
- boars may experience infertility, fluid retention (oedematous) and congested testicles.

Adult female pigs do not typically show other signs of disease.

How you can minimise the risk to your pigs

Control mosquitoes on your property

- eliminate mosquito breeding areas (e.g. stagnant water)
- pig producers should contact Australian Pork Limited (APL) for specific advice about using chemicals for mosquito control and Regions

Minimise pig exposure to mosquitos

- use mosquito repellent or netting
- cover animals or keep them indoors at a time of high mosquito activity (dawn, and dusk and overnight).

Treating the virus

There is currently no effective vaccine or treatment for animals. Effective management of mosquitoes on your property is key to preventing the spread of infection.

Reporting an animal suspected with the virus

Japanese encephalitis is an exotic a notifiable exotic disease in South Australia.

If you suspect Japanese encephalitis in pigs within South Australia, report it immediately on the Emergency Animal Disease Watch Hotline on 1800 675 888.

Japanese encephalitis – information for horse owners

Symptoms to look for in horses

Many horses infected with the virus are asymptomatic. Most cases showing symptoms are mild, however severe encephalitis can cause death.

Common symptoms in horses and donkeys include:

- elevated temperature
- lethargy
- decreased or no appetite
- jaundice
- neurological such as incoordination, wobbliness, hyperexcitability
- difficulty swallowing or impaired vision.

Most horses will recover within a week of having this disease.

Other arboviruses may also show the same clinical signs. These include West Nile virus – Kunjin strain (WNV-Kunjin), Murray Valley encephalitis virus (MVEV) and Ross River virus (RRV) which are endemic to Australia.

How you can minimise the risk to your horses

Minimise horse exposure to mosquitos

- use mosquito repellent or netting
- put a light summer or cotton rug on horses, a fly mask, and if the horse allows, apply a safe insect repellent. Do not spray repellent around or above their eyes
- rugging and hooding with lightweight permethrin fabric may help protect horses not stabled overnight
- eliminate mosquito breeding sites by limiting the amount of stagnant water around horses
- house horses during peak periods of mosquito activity (between dusk and dawn).

Treating the virus

There is no effective treatment for JE in horses or other livestock.

Reporting an animal suspected with the virus

Japanese encephalitis is an exotic a notifiable exotic disease in South Australia.

If you suspect JE (or other arboviruses) in your horses, especially if showing clinical signs, please call the Emergency Animal Disease Watch Hotline on 1800 675 888.

Arboviral diseases in humans

Arboviral diseases may also affect humans, with RRV and Barmah Forest virus being the most common arbovirus diseases in SA. Most JE infections in people cause no symptoms. Some infected people experience an illness with fever and headache but severe illness may cause fever, convulsions disorientation and coma. If you experience symptoms, you should seek medical advice and contact SA Health.

THANK YOU REG

This week we caught up with someone who has been living in the district since 1950 ... Mr Reg Herrmann

Having moved from Waikerie, Reg resided in Bowhill for 13 years, before moving 🚗 to Perponda when he got married 💍 and lived for 37 years. Moving to Karoonda in 2000 where he has now lived for 22 years.

His favourite ❤️ part about our community is that it is kept neat and tidy and being a small community, you can always talk 🗣️ to someone and get help if you need.

Reg is a familiar sight 👁️ around town because for the better part of 20 years he has been collecting bottles and cans around the district and donated 💰 the proceeds to worthy organisations such as the hospital auxiliary, Karoonda Area School and the Cancer Council.

Over 20 years or so he has donated over $30,000 to community groups and organisations. 🤔 How incredible! 🙌

Reg has decided to step down and enjoy his retirement 🏡, which now gives the opportunity for local community groups and organisations to get involved in a new “Council Bin Recyclables” initiative ♻️, where you can register interest to be included on a roster for the collection of recyclables from council bins in Karoonda, a great way to supplement fundraising for your club or organisation! 👍 Email council@dckem.sa.gov.au to register!

A passionate and active community member of our district, let's find out more about Reg...

Do you volunteer?

Yes. I have been collecting cans and bottles in the town and district to donate to worthy organisations for about 20 years. Also, I previously volunteered my time doing Meals on Wheels.

Do you have family in the district?

Yes, I have a sister (Yvonne Mann) who runs the Wynarka Post Office and a nephew (David Herrmann) and family who live at Bowhill and a nephew Kristian Herrmann who is a seed grader, plus family in Karoonda.

What did/do you do for work?

I left school at age 14 in Bowhill and did general farm work at home and for neighbours. This is where I learnt how to shear and shore on and off for 40 years at home and around the district and teaching other farmers sons when they shore at our farm.

📌 What are your hobbies?

Playing lawn bowls and collecting cans and bottles, watching TV especially the football, Go Crows 🇺🇸 🇦🇺

❤️ and travelling including bus trips all around Australia, and cruising the islands, New Zealand, Tasmania, and Norfolk Island.

📌 Tell us some interesting things about yourself?

I like going to church on Sundays, communicating with locals and enjoy meeting and talking to our 5 grandchildren.

In 2016 I was Citizen of the Year.

- REGISTRATION OF INTEREST - COUNCIL BIN RECYCLABLES

Council are seeking registration of interest from community groups and organisations to be included on a roster for the collection of recyclables from council bins located in Karoonda.

A great way to supplement fundraising for your community group or organisation.

SA Ambulance Service volunteers needed at Karoonda

The SA Ambulance Service (SAAS) volunteer team at Karoonda and surrounding areas are looking for volunteers to join them as the service launches a new community recruitment drive.

Volunteers across Karoonda have been speaking about the benefits of becoming a SAAS volunteer in country SA. They say it is easier than you think with the opportunity to make a difference in the community and gain life-skills that can be used in everyday life.

Karoonda volunteer Robyn has been volunteering with SAAS for fourteen years. On her experience volunteering Robyn says “it is very fulfilling being able to care for our community when they are most vulnerable. The look of relief and gratitude from our patients and their families when we arrive is very rewarding. We care about our local community and that’s why we do it!”.

Robyn says that she has learned life-saving skills that will stay with her forever and has gained the confidence to step up and help someone in need, whether in uniform or off duty. “SAAS strives to provide a caring professional service. I’m very proud to be an ambulance volunteer and part of the Karoonda team”.

Like Robyn you can get the necessary training, which is totally free of charge. At the end of your training you’ll walk away with a nationally accredited Certificate IV in Health Care.

Most patients are people with chest pain, breathing problems, have experienced a fall, or have pre-existing medical conditions. Of course, on some occasions there are major incidents, but these are a very small portion of the work. You will always be paired with a qualified ambulance officer, who will be there to assist and support you.

With flexible rosters that can work around your lifestyle, you don’t always need to be at the ambulance station when on-call.

The Karoonda team train every Monday night during the school term. Robyn adds: “training nights are fun! We learn or re-educate our skills but always manage to have a few laughs as well. We have a great supportive and caring team”.

There’s no better time to take control in an emergency, to help save the lives of others.

Interested? Call Regional Team Leader, Paula on 0488 970 932 or the Volunteer Support Unit on 8150 3460 (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 4.30pm). Or apply through the SAAS website: www.saasvolunteer.sa.gov.au or email SAASvolunteer@sa.gov.au

See what we get up to on Facebook @SAAmbulanceService or Instagram @sa_ambulanceservice.
